ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 15A473. Ernest Lee Johnson, Applicant v. George A. Lombardi, et al. The application for stay of execution of sentence of death presented to Justice Alito and by him referred to the Court is treated as an application for stay pending appeal in the Eighth Circuit. The application is granted pending the disposition of petitioner’s appeal. Petitioner’s complaint alleges that Missouri’s method of execution violates the Eighth Amendment as applied to a person with his particular medical condition. A supporting affidavit by a medical expert states that “[a]s a result of Mr. Johnson’s brain tumor, brain defect, and brain scar, a substantial risk of serious harm will occur during his execution as a result of a violent seizure that may be induced by [the] Pentobarbital injection.” Because petitioner’s complaint was dismissed for failure to state a claim, the State was not required to submit any evidence refuting this allegation. In the currently pending appeal, the Court of Appeals will be required to decide whether petitioner’s complaint was properly dismissed for failure to state a claim or whether the case should have been permitted to progress to the summary judgment stage.

ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 15A478. Ernest Lee Johnson, Applicant v. Cindy Griffith, Warden. Application for stay of execution of sentence of death presented to Justice Alito and by him referred to the Court denied.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

The Chief Justice said:

“The memorial drapery on the bench and chair beside me signifies mourning for a Justice who has died in active service on the Court. Today, it marks the loss of our friend and colleague, Antonin Scalia, who died unexpectedly on February 13, 2016.”

“Justice Scalia was born in Trenton, New Jersey, on March 11, 1936, to parents of Italian descent. He attended public grade school in Queens, New York, and then a Jesuit military school in Manhattan, graduating first in his class. He enrolled at Georgetown University, graduating summa cum laude and as valedictorian in 1957. He next attended Harvard Law School, graduating magna cum laude in 1960.”

“While at Harvard, he met Maureen McCarthy, and they married in 1960. Their devoted union produced nine beloved children: Ann Forrest; Eugene; John Francis; Catherine Elisabeth; Mary Clare; Paul David; Matthew; Christopher James; and Margaret Jane.”

“After graduating from law school, Justice Scalia embarked on a career in private practice in Cleveland, Ohio, but his love of knowledge drew him to academia. In 1967, he received an appointment to the faculty of the University of Virginia Law School. After four years of teaching and writing, he entered public service as General Counsel of the White House Office of Telecommunications Policy, at the dawn of the cable television age. He later served as Chairman of the Administrative Conference of the United States, and as Assistant Attorney General for the Office of Legal Counsel at the Department of Justice. In 1976, during his tenure at the Justice Department, Justice Scalia argued his first and only Supreme Court case. He prevailed, establishing a perfect record before the Court.”

“Justice Scalia returned to teaching as Professor of Law at the University of Chicago Law School. In 1982, President Reagan appointed him to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. On June 24, 1986, President Reagan nominated him to this Court. Justice Scalia took his seat on September 26 of that year, becoming the 103rd Justice to serve on this Court.”

“Justice Scalia devoted nearly 30 years of his life to this Court in service to the country he so loved. He authored 292 majority opinions for the Court. He was also known, on occasion, to dissent. We remember his incisive intellect, his agile wit, and his captivating prose. But we cannot forget his irrepressible spirit. He was our man for all seasons, and we shall miss him beyond measure. We extend our condolences to his wife Maureen, his children, and the entire Scalia family.”

“At an appropriate time, the traditional memorial service of the Court and the bar will be held in this courtroom.”

“And now we turn to the business of the Court.”

Consistent with the Court's action granting a stay in Whole Woman's Health v. Cole, No. 14A1288 (June 29, 2015), the application to vacate the stay entered by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit on February 24, 2016, presented to Justice Thomas and by him referred to the Court, is granted and the Fifth Circuit's stay of the district court's injunction is vacated. Justice Thomas would deny the application.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Present: Chief Justice Roberts, Justice Kennedy, Justice Thomas, Justice Ginsburg, and Justice Kagan.

The Chief Justice said:

“We have issued orders today, they have been duly entered and certified, and filed with the Clerk.”

OPINIONS PER CURIAM

No. 14–10008. Michael Wearry, Petitioner v. Burl Cain, Warden. On petition for writ of certiorari to the District Court of Louisiana, Livingston Parish. Motion of petitioner for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and petition for writ of certiorari granted. On petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Petition for writ of certiorari granted. Justice Thomas, with whom Justice Alito joins, concurring in the decision to grant, vacate, and remand in this case: The Court has held the petitions in these and many other cases pending the decision in *Montgomery v. In holding these petitions and now vacating and remanding the judgment below, the Court has not assessed whether petitioners' asserted entitlement to retroactive relief "is properly presented in the case." Id., at — (slip op., at 13). On remand, courts should understand that the Court's disposition of these petitions does not reflect any view regarding petitioners' entitlement to relief. The Court's disposition does not, for example, address whether an adequate and independent state ground bars relief, whether petitioners forfeited or waived any entitlement to relief (by, for example, entering into a plea agreement waiving any entitlement to relief), or whether petitioners' sentences actually qualify as mandatory life without parole sentences.

remand, courts should understand that the Court's disposition of this petition does not reflect any view regarding petitioner's entitlement to relief. The parties are directed to file supplemental briefs that address whether and how contraceptive coverage may be obtained by petitioners' employees through petitioners' insurance companies, but in a way that does not require any involvement of petitioners beyond their own decision to provide health insurance without contraceptive coverage to their employees.

Petitioners with insured plans are currently required to submit a form either to their insurer or to the Federal Government (naming petitioners' insurance company), stating that petitioners object on religious grounds to providing contraceptive coverage. The parties are directed to address whether contraceptive coverage could be provided to petitioners' employees, through petitioners' insurance companies, without any such notice from petitioners.

For example, the parties should consider a situation in which petitioners would contract to provide health insurance for their employees, and in the course of obtaining such insurance, inform their insurance company that they do not want their health plan to include contraceptive coverage of the type to which they object on religious grounds. Petitioners would have no legal obligation to provide such contraceptive coverage, would not pay for such coverage, and would not be required to submit any separate notice to their insurer, to the Federal Government, or to their employees. At the same time, petitioners' insurance company—aware that petitioners are not providing certain contraceptive coverage on religious grounds—would separately notify petitioners' employees that the insurance company will provide cost-free contraceptive coverage, and that such coverage is not paid for by petitioners and is not provided through petitioners' health plan.

The parties may address other proposals along similar lines, avoiding repetition of discussion in prior briefing.

The briefs, limited to a single brief 25 pages in length for petitioners, and a single brief 20 pages in length for respondents, are to be filed simultaneously with the Clerk and served upon counsel for the other parties on or before April 12, 2016. Reply briefs, limited to a single brief 10 pages in length for petitioners and for respondents, are to be filed simultaneously with the Clerk and served upon opposing counsel for the other parties on or before April 20, 2016.

ORDER IN PENDING CASE

No. 15A999. Marc Veasey, et al., Applicants v. Greg Abbott, Governor of Texas, et al. Application to vacate the stay entered by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit on October 14, 2014, presented to Justice Thomas and by him referred to the Court is denied. The Court recognizes the time constraints the parties confront in light of the scheduled elections in November, 2016. If, on or before July 20, 2016, the Court of Appeals has neither issued an opinion on the merits of the case nor issued an order vacating or modifying the current stay order, an aggrieved party may seek interim relief from this Court by filing an appropriate application. An aggrieved party may also seek interim relief if any change in circumstances before that date supports further arguments respecting the stay order.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

The Chief Justice said:

“We have issued orders today, they have been duly entered and certified, and filed with the Clerk.”

CERTIORARI—SUMMARY DISPOSITIONS

No. 15–1. Shermaine Ali Johnson, Petitioner v. Carl Manis, Warden. On petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. Petition for writ of certiorari granted. Judgment vacated, and case remanded to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit for further consideration in light of Montgomery v. Louisiana, 577 U. S. — (2016).

Justice Thomas, with whom Justice Alito joins, concurring in the decision to grant, vacate, and remand in this case: The Court has held the petition in this and many other cases pending the decision in Montgomery v. Louisiana, 577 U. S. — (2016). In holding this petition and now vacating and remanding the judgment below, the Court has not assessed whether petitioner’s asserted entitlement to retroactive relief “is properly presented in the case.” Id., at — (slip op., at 13). On remand, courts should understand that the Court’s disposition of this petition does not reflect any view regarding petitioner’s entitlement to relief. The Court’s disposition does not, for example, address whether an adequate and independent state ground bars relief, whether petitioner forfeited or waived any entitlement to relief (by, for example, entering into a plea agreement waiving any entitlement to relief), or whether petitioner’s sentence actually qualifies as a mandatory life without parole sentence.

Justice Alito, with whom Justice Thomas joins, concurring in the decision to grant, vacate and remand. I concur in the decision to grant, vacate and remand. See Adams v. Alabama, 578 U. S. — (2016) (Alito, J., concurring).

Justice Sotomayor, with whom Justice Ginsburg joins, concurring in the decision to grant, vacate and remand. I concur in the decision to grant, vacate and remand. See Adams v. Alabama, 578 U. S. — (2016) (Sotomayor, J., concurring).

Gillie*, 578 U. S. — (2016).

No. 15–1100. Catholic Health Care System, et al., Petitioners v. Sylvia Burwell, Secretary of Health and Human Services, et al. On petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Petition for writ of certiorari granted. Judgment vacated, and case remanded to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in light of Zubik v. Burwell, 578 U. S. — (2016). Nothing in the Zubik opinion, or in the opinions or orders of the courts below, is to affect the ability of the Government to ensure that women covered by petitioners' health plans "obtain, without cost, the full range of FDA approved contraceptives." Wheaton College v. Burwell, 573 U. S. —, — (2014) (slip op., at 1). Through this litigation, petitioners have made the Government aware of their view that they meet "the requirements for exemption from the contraceptive coverage requirement on religious grounds." Id., at — (slip op., at 2). Nothing in the Zubik opinion, or in the opinions or orders of the courts below, "precludes the Government from relying on this notice, to the extent it considers it necessary, to facilitate the provision of full contraceptive coverage" going forward. Ibid. Because the Government may rely on this notice, the Government may not impose taxes or penalties on petitioners for failure to provide the relevant notice.

Justice Sotomayor, with whom Justice Ginsburg joins, concurs in the decision to grant, vacate, and remand in this case for the reasons expressed in Zubik v. Burwell, 578 U. S. — (2016) (Sotomayor, J., concurring).

Justice Thomas, with whom Justice Alito joins, concurring in the decision to grant, vacate, and remand in this case: The Court has held the petition in this and many other cases pending the decision in Montgomery v. Louisiana, 577 U.S. — (2016). In holding this petition and now vacating and remanding the judgment below, the Court has not assessed whether petitioner's asserted entitlement to retroactive relief "is properly presented in the case." Id., at — (slip op., at 13). On remand, courts should understand that the Court's disposition of this petition does not reflect any view regarding petitioner's entitlement to relief. The Court's disposition does not, for example, address whether an adequate and independent state ground bars relief, whether petitioner forfeited or waived any entitlement to relief (by, for example, entering into a plea agreement waiving any entitlement to relief), or whether petitioner's sentence actually qualifies as a mandatory life without parole sentence.
